MONDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 2024

TUESDAY, MARCH 26, 2024

Apostle Darryl L. Winston, Sr. Pastor

On a Journey With God Together

The entire church body of Greater Works Ministries will begin fasting and praying on Monday, February 19th. This year (Feb 19-23) will be no sugar and drink plenty of water. February 26 - March 26 we will be fasting from 6:00 am to 6:00 pm, there will be no fasting on Sundays. We will be praying daily at 6:00 am. We will fast and petition God concerning our personal spiritual growth, our families, our church, community, and nation, daily. Prayer and fasting are spiritual disciplines that will increase your power and will also enhance your relationship with God. As our prayers intensify, God will satisfy our physical and spiritual needs.

Through prayer, fasting and reading God's Word, we will become aware of our dependence on God in all areas of our lives, we will mature spiritually, and our relationship with God will strengthen. Pray and ask the Holy Spirit to give you strength for this journey with the church body. This is an awesome time of unified and focused prayer and fasting in the life of our church. I pray that as you pray these prayers, fast daily and read God's Word you will encounter Him in a whole new way and that your life will be enriched and blessed.

May the Peace of God be with you on this "Journey with God."

The following information is for people who are on medicine and CANNOT abstain from food.

Daniel Fast:

The concept of a Daniel fast comes from Daniel 1:8-14, “But Daniel resolved not to defile himself with the royal food and wine, and he asked the chief official for permission not to defile himself this way. Now God had caused the official to show favor and sympathy to Daniel, but the official told Daniel, “I am afraid of my lord the king, who has assigned your food and drink. Why should he see you looking worse than the other young men your age? The king would then have my head because of you.” Daniel then said to the guard whom the chief official had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah, “Please test your servants for ten days: Give us nothing but vegetables to eat and water to drink. Then compare our appearance with that of the young men who eat the royal food, and treat your servants in accordance with what you see.” So he agreed to this and tested them for ten days.”

The background of the “Daniel fast” is that Daniel and his three friends had been “deported” to Babylon when Nebuchadnezzar and the Babylonians had conquered Judah (2 Kings 24:13-14). Daniel and his three friends were put into the Babylonian court servant “training program.” Part of the program was learning Babylonian customs, beliefs, laws, and practices. The eating habits of the Babylonians were not in complete agreement with the Mosaic law. As a result, Daniel asked if he and his three friends could be excused from eating the meat (which was likely sacrificed to Babylonian false gods and idols).

So, a Daniel fast is eating only fruits and vegetables for a certain amount of time, abstaining from meat products. Some people use a Daniel fast as a dieting method. Some people use a Daniel fast instead of fasting from food entirely. The Bible nowhere commands believers to observe a Daniel fast. As a result, it is a matter of Christian freedom whether to observe a Daniel fast.

In the Name of Jesus, I pray.
Amen.

Father how can I know what sins are lurking in my heart except you reveal them? Please cleanse me from these hidden faults, and keep me from deliberate wrongs; help me to stop doing them. Only then can I be free from guilt. May my spoken words and unspoken thoughts be pleasing to you, O Lord my Rock and my Redeemer. Thank you for forgiving the sins that fill our hearts. Merciful Father, I choose to forgive everyone in my life, including myself, because You have forgiven me. I thank You Lord, for this grace. I forgive myself for not being perfect. I accept myself and make a decision to stop being my own worst enemy. I forgive myself for all my sins, faults, and failing. I especially forgive myself for _____. I release the things held against myself, free myself from bondage and, by the power of the Holy Spirit I make peace with myself today. Heavenly Father, I now ask for the grace to forgive the ONE-PERSON IN LIFE WHO HAS HURT ME THE MOST. I now choose to forgive this person though I may still feel angry and hurt. I also make peace with the one family member, the one friend or one authority figure that have hurt me the most. Father, please give me a heart of forgiveness. Continuing in Prayer Together:

Father God, help us to realize that the unity and practice of prayer is the strength of the church. Our church believes in the purpose, privilege and the power of prayer. As we exercise the power of intercession with all perseverance, we shall be delivered from self with all its feeble prayers, and be lifted up to that enlargement of the heart in which the love of Christ can flow freely and fully through us. Help us to be very mindful of the great and blessed work of calling down the blessing of God on our brothers and sisters in Christ, that the whole church will be fitted to do its work in making Christ known to everyone. This alone is the healthy and blessed life of a child of God who has yielded himself wholly to Christ Jesus. Let us pray for all of God’s children, our church and every church opened in the name of Jesus. Pray for the work which they are engaged in or should be engaged in and let us pray for the Spirit for all of God’s saints. Help us to remember that when we pray our prayers go up to heaven in worship, out into the world in work and down to hell in warfare. Thank you Jesus!

God’s Prayer Promise: *“The Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groans that words cannot express.
